PARKITES SWAT HANSON PLENTY

All Goes Well Until the Sixth, When Balloon Is Sent Skyward.

(Special to The Herald.)

Eureka, May 14.—Eureka met with a disastrous defeat at the hands of Park City today, the Park boys gathering in a total of fifteen runs against three for the home team. Poor pitching for Eureka was the cause. Up to the fifth inning the class of baseball was good enough to suit the most fastidious fan, both aggregations playing baseball, with Park City in the lead by a score of 4 to 1.

In the beginning of the sixth, the balloon ascension began, the Parkites swatting Hanson to every corner of the lot, scoring in all seven runs and giving the Eureka fielders more to do than they have had since the days they played town ball.

Zimmerman, Park City's new pitcher, was in great form and also caught with the stick. Northrop, Moore and Wall each had a sensational catch to their credit, and O'Connor played good steady ball.

Manager Thompson said this evening that he had a new pitcher on the way and that such a calamity that befell Eureka today will never occur again.

ONE STROKE HOLES BALL.

Hoare Makes Phenomenal Drive at Country Club.

In a practice game of golf at the Country club yesterday, V. V. Hoare, the new instructor, made the last hole of the new course in one stroke. The distance is 185 yards. This is not only the first time this feat has been accomplished since the opening of the new course, but in all probability it will not be equalled in many a day.

Mr. Hoare was playing the best ball of R. B. Harkness and F. E. McGurran, two of the club's best players at the time. In the game Hoare was beaten by one up, the handicap being too great for him.

TRYING TO KEEP THE COAST LEAGUE INTACT

Oakland, May 14.—The Pacific Coast Baseball league today accepted the franchise of the Los Angeles team, franchise from James Morley. The franchise was taken up by Ewing, Evans, McCredie, of Portland and Evans of Fresno. In case the Los Angeles grounds cannot be renewed, the franchise will be transferred to Sacramento. The league will remain intact. Ewing, Evans and McCredie will buy Seattle's franchise in case it is bought. James Morley of Seattle wired tonight for a definite decision. The league will meet tomorrow to rearrange a game schedule. Team salaries were fixed tonight at $2,000. Morley's $1,500 forfeit was returned to him.
